

Monthly Meeting AGENDA

February HAP Meeting to Highlight Senior Services' Aging Well Initiative

February 23, 8:30 am - 10:00 am, Senior Services, 2208 2nd Ave., in Belltown

Invite your colleagues and community partners for a morning of learning and networking with others to further the work of healthy aging.

Tuesday, February 23, 2010

8:30 am Welcome and Introductions

Karen Winston, Aging and Disability Services

8:40 Budget Report

Karen Lewis, C.H.E.F.

8:50 Partner Presentation Aging Well Initiative

Joanne Donohue, Senior Services

Joanne Donohue is Vice President at Senior Services, a non profit that serves older adults in King County. She oversees the Aging Well Initiative as well as the senior center and adult day health programs. Joanne has worked in the field of aging for the past 25 years in social service, government, and health care settings. Joanne is knowledgeable about services, funding, and systems of care for the newly retired on up to the frail elderly. She has 16 years of leadership and management experience and 8 years of direct service experience working with older adults and their families. Joanne has a masters degree in social work from the University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee and a bachelors degree from Marquette University.

9:15 HAP 2010 Workplan Discussion

Andrea Sanchez Meewes, Senior Services

9:40 VISTA Update

Robin Knudson, RSVP

9:50 Announcements

10:00 Meeting Adjourned

NEXT MEETING: Tuesday, March 23, 2010, 8:30am - 10:00, Senior Services

The Healthy Aging Partnership meets on the 4th Tuesday of each month (no meeting in December), from 8:30 to 10:00 a.m. at the Paul Allen Conference Room of Senior Services of Seattle-King County (the Lillian Rice Center), 2208 2nd Avenue in the Belltown area of downtown Seattle. The building is on the east side of 2nd Avenue, near the intersection of 2nd and Blanchard. Meter parking is usually available on the street, and there are several pay lots nearby. For information on bus schedules and the ride-free zone, go to www.metrokc.gov and click on Transportation

Questions or comments? Contact:

Karen Lewis

Comprehensive Health Education Foundation

206-824-2907, ext. 1905

karenl@chef.org

